

RILLA FORCE

Rilla Force is an independent artist hailing from Boston, Massachusetts. His signature sound is a sub genre he's coined RNBDM—a blend of future bass infused with electronic, hip-hop, and RnB.

Rilla Force has been producing music for over a decade. Over the years, he's worked with a roster of diverse musicians creating soundscapes from smooth RnB to bouncy pop to bass-heavy EDM. As an artist, Rilla Force has performed across the northeast and brought his unique sound to hundreds of fans. His DJ career has also carried him to various international venues.

He is looking forward to introducing the mainstream to his unique sound, increasing his production credits, and continuing to work with a diverse roster of artists. Rilla Force partnered with Gratitude Sound to release Fiesta, his debut album in Fall 2019. The follow-up EP, Calls After Fiesta, he released independently in the Fall of 2021.

The man operating this post-modern device is Rilla Force, a Boston-based producer who specializes in the avant-garde bass game. Drawing similarities to an R&B version of her-zeloyde and swindail, it's only fitting that his latest release debuts on D.C. label Fête, having released previous work on ZEPHYR. This art deco environment is new for him, however, and is the first time he's premiered this song, 'Life'.
